REPORT OF CHINA FAMINE

COMMITTEE FOR BATH CO.

I have the following word from the National Director of China Famine Fund Campaign: "Our work on behalf of the famine sufferers of China is about completed. Cable reports from Peking advise that recent contributions from the Chinese themselves have greatly exceeded largest expectations; also that abundant rains have now fallen throughout the famine area and harvests are therefore assured where two weeks ago complete failure was threatened. The American Committee rejoices, therefore, that the task for which it was appointed and for which its state and local organizations were established, has been accomplished."

In view of the foregoing, I want to make a report of the work done by the Bath County Committee. Public and private contributions were taken beginning last February. Mr. W. C. Lacy, the treasurer, reports that the amount received by him is $169.95, all of which has been sent to the state treasurer.

In addition to this a great deal has been sent directly to the state and national offices. I know of two hundred dollars that have been sent in this way, and, doubtless, a great deal more has been sent by churches and individuals.

Now that no more contributions are needed, I want to thank those who helped in this campaign, both by giving and by soliciting. America has responded nobly to this and the many other worthy appeals that have been made to her by the starving millions of Europe and China. It was a privilege to have a part in this good work.

HENRY S. PICKLIN,

ANNOUNCEMENT OF

W. D. BAILEY

To the Voters of Bath County:

I take this method of announcing myself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office of County Judge of Bath County, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the primary election to be held August 6, 1921, feeling and believing that I am competent and qualified to fill the office of County Judge of Bath county or I would not be a candidate for this nomination. And if I am nominated and elected I will fearlessly, faithfully, honestly and impartially discharge my official duties in this office as your County Judge. I do not belong to any individual or to any clique; I stand for better roads for the benefit of money that has been spent for my purposes. I have a duty to the present administration of this county. I stand for lowering the county tax rate to figures in keeping with the times, and I stand for an efficient and economical administration of the road fund, and stand for more of the tax money collected for road purposes to be spent for work on our turnpikes and dirt roads and bridges; and less of the taxpayers' money spent for some kinds of worthless machinery and other unnecessary expenses; I stand for the day laboring man to receive fair and just wages for his labor in proportion to the cost of living, keeping within the times; I stand for law and order and sobriety, and for the great common sense of Bath county; I stand for an honest, clean election without use of either money or whisky or any means of bribery; I stand against raising the salary of any county official above the salary under which he was elected, unless he is willing to give extra service and does give extra service for the benefit of Bath county and its taxpayers over and above that which he was elected to do or to give to Bath county and its taxpayers; I am against standing in 50 to 50 at the expense of the taxpayers of the county; if this has been done by any official, I say if I am nominated and elected as your County Judge that I will not hold back in the treasury a portion of the taxpayers' money for the purpose of saying that when I went out of office I let so much money in the treasury when such amount of money should have been spent for work done on our turnpikes and dirt roads and on bridges or for any other necessities for Bath county for which the tax money is collected, for knowing this to be right and believing that this will meet with the approval of the voters and taxpayers of Bath county for the taxpayers have paid that money for that purpose, and if that money is left lying in the treasury the taxpayers are not receiving value for the tax money which they are paying for that purpose. And so I say to the voters of Bath county, give my platform and opinion a fair consideration and then vote for me for the nomination for County Judge of Bath county, on the 6th day of August, 1921.

I never failed at any time to give a free donation for the benefit of our soldier boys during the great World war, and I never failed at any time to give my little mite to the poor and needy and unfortunate who could not help themselves, and I have never failed to pay a minister of the Gospel for his services and great good work done in trying to save poor sinners' souls from torment. And now I desire to say that because I had failed to have my announcement in the Owingsville Outlook up to this time and having only had my announcement in printed cards, some of my opponents or their friends have tried to circulate the report that I am not a candidate for the nomination for County Judge and that I had withdrawn from the race. This report is malicious and false report and without any foundation whatever. I am in this race to a finish and my name will be on the ballots until the polls close August 6, 1921. And now I say to my friends to keep on pressing the button and I will win this nomination. I say to the voters of Bath county that if nominated and elected I will use all honorable means in my power to get the State and Government aid at all times to assist in making better roads like some of our sister counties in Kentucky are receiving. If we do not try to do our duty and ask for it we never will get the Government and State aid that we should receive. Concerning roads the voters should look at this matter in the proper way.

In conclusion I wish to say that I have always been a true, loyal and faithful Democrat, always working for the success of the party, and I do now most respectfully solicit the support and influence of all Democrats, both gentlemen and ladies, in my race for this nomination, and if I am nominated I have no doubt nor fear but what I will be elected in November, 1921, for I have many Republican friends in Bath county of whom I am very proud for their kindness to me in the past, as I have been a Democratic nominee a few times heretofore, and I trust that if I am nominated they will be my friends again, and desire to say to those Republicans who have spoken and worked in my behalf that I am very thankful to them for their kindness, although I am a Democrat.

Most respectfully your obedient servant,
W. D. BAILEY.

Candidate for the Democratic nomination for County Judge.

WAR HERO AND LEGION LEADER KILLED BY AUTO

BY ORDER BY SENATE,
TESTIMONIAL TO WORK
OF F. W. GALBRAITH

Efforts of Cincinnati To Assist Soldiers Echoed in Decision To Investigate Bureau—Eulogies of Legion Commander Voiced as Upper House Unanimously Favors Resolution.

Washington—Not only with words, but by adoption of a resolution intended to aid disabled former service men, did the Senate of the United States declare the unexpected death of Colonel Frederick W. Galbraith, Jr., of Cincinnati, commander in chief of the American Legion, following announcement of his death by Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, Republican, New Jersey, and short eulogies by him and Senator Frank B. Willis, Republican, Ohio, the Senate unanimously agreed with Senator David I. Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, that the "most fitting testimonial" would be adoption of the latter's pending resolution to investigate government relief agencies for veterans.

The adopted resolution, which Senator Willis spoke against and voted for, creates a select committee of three Republicans and two Democratic Senators to investigate all bureaus and agencies of the Government dealing with the care, treatment, insurance, compensating, rehabilitating and hospitalizing of disabled former service men. The agency which has the duty in inquiry are the Bureau of War Risk, United States Public Health Service and the Federal Board of Vocational Education.

Senate Approves Big Army.
Washington.—A peculiar situation was evolved in Congress when the Senate voted, 74 to 20, not to concur with the House agreement on a small army, and the House refused to take a direct vote on the Borah disarmament amendment, sending the naval appropriation bill to conference without instructing the House conferees. In a way it indicates the confusion in thought of the legislative body, but it showed more clearly that such of them is trending with padded feet on disarmament proposals, for both of the economy proposals were given backhanded shoves toward defeat.

Production Is Curbed.
Washington.—Charges that loggers and lumber manufacturers of the "Douglas fir region" on the Pacific coast, the future "chief source of the country's lumber supply," are organized to fix lumber prices by "concerted restriction of production," are made by the Federal Trade Commission in a report submitted to Congress. "They have been engaged in such activities for 20 years," the report said, adding that evidence upon which conclusion of the commission was based was procured from the files of the associations concerned, with the production of Douglas fir.

W. S. Sells.
Chicago.—Kiddie bandits lined up dancers in an inn north of Evanston and escaped with jewelry and cash estimated to be worth $20,000. The dancers at first thought it was a joke when a young man, with a cap pulled low over his eyes and a pistol in each hand, stepped out on the floor and commanded them to line up, but the guests quickly complied when three other robbers entered and fired several shots into the ceiling. One woman saved diamonds valued at $15,000 by dropping them into her cup of coffee.

Use Sunday Papers.
Boston, Mass.—Use of the Sunday newspapers as a connecting link between the professional physicians and the layman was suggested by Dr. Dwight Murray, of Syracuse, N. Y., speaker of the House of Delegates of the American Medical Association. Physicians should take the public into their confidence to a larger degree than they have in the past, Dr. Murray declared in an address at the opening session of the House of Delegates meeting here in connection with the annual convention of the Medical Association.

Taxpayers Are Warned.
Washington.—Taxpayers were warned by the Internal Revenue Bureau to pay their June 15 installment of income and profits taxes on time to avoid penalties. Failure to pay promptly, the bureau declared, renders the balance of the tax due and payable, as well as an additional assessment of 5 per cent of the amount due, plus interest at 1 per cent a month from the time it became due.

Unions Must Be Joined.
Denver, Colo.—Joint action by all the metal working trades unions in the country to resist further reductions in wages and increases in the hours of labor was urged by James O'Connell, president of the Metal Trade Union, at the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor. In his annual address to the department's convention, Building trades workers also were warned that further wage cuts were not justified by William Spencer, secretary of the Building Trades Department, in his address before the convention.

Truthful Advertising.
Louisville.—Election of officers, endorsement of the co-operative plan of marketing tobacco and selection of Louisville for the next annual meeting marked the closing sessions of the Kentucky Retail Clothiers' Association here. Truthful newspaper advertising was suggested as the best means for combating the public's attitude toward the retailer by Wayne Calhoun, advertising specialist of Cincinnati, who spoke to the clothiers.

HAILED THE SUN AS THEIR GOD

Incas Welcomed Return of Life-Giving Rays With Great Festival and Much Ceremony.

At this time of the year, in the days of the golden Inca empire, "Raymí," the great festival of the sun, was celebrated. Then the lord of the day, who had gone so far from Peru, retraced his steps and came back to

Public Funeral for Two Heroes of Washington

Crowds at the Sylvan theater on the monument grounds at Washington, when the public funeral was held over the bodies of Vincent B. Costello and Elmer E. Bush, in honor of all Washington heroes who died in the World War. The services were attended by Vice President Coolidge, General Pershing, the district commissioners and other government and city officials.

SIMS MAY BE DISCIPLINED

SENATE MAY CALL AMERICAN ADMIRAL TO ACCOUNT FOR LONDON SPEECH.

Action of a Disciplinary Nature Is Foreshadowed By Both Houses of Congress—Harrison and Ryan Are Authors of Measure.

Washington.—Possible dismissal of Rear Admiral William S. Sims from the United States Navy, as the result of his speech in London recently, was foreshadowed in both Houses of Congress. The Senate passed a resolution directing the Naval Affairs Committee to make a "thorough investigation of the reported remarks of Admiral Sims and to report to the Senate with recommendations."

At the same time Representative Thomas J. Ryan, of New York, Republican, introduced a resolution in the House calling for an investigation.

In a statement Mr. Ryan said he did so "to make sure that there will be an investigation and that if Admiral Sims is guilty correctly he will be punished."

"I wish to make sure that the Senate Naval Committee does not pigeonhole the Senate investigation," said Ryan. Senate leaders stated that if published accounts of the Admiral's speech were substantiated the propriety of would call for his immediate dismissal or drastic disciplinary action at least. The resolution authorizing the Senatorial investigation was introduced by Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, Democrat. It was adopted without objection, although Senator James W. Whitworth, Jr., of New York, Republican, had occasion to object.

Grilling Brings Tears.
New York.—Marlin McArdle, 19 years old, held here in connection with the murder of her stepfather, Daniel Kaher, in Lakewood, O., collapsed under questioning by detectives here. "For God's sake, Captain Carey, don't ask me to testify against my mother," Miss McArdle is alleged to have cried hysterically at the end of three hours' questioning. Bruises had to be administered before she could be quieted.

Will Remove Gag Rule.
Washington.—A general order removing the alleged "gag rule" from the navy has been approved by Secretary Edwin Denby. It is understood, and will be issued soon. It now is in the hands of the printers. In effect, it is said, the order states that hereafter officers may write for publication without submitting their articles to the censorship at the Navy Department.

Appeal For Money.
Washington.—President Harding issued a request calling upon the public of the United States to assist by contributions the American Red Cross in rendering aid to the inhabitants of Pueblo, Col., because of flood conditions.

So Long, Fritz!
Chicago.—The German submarine U-37 was sunk in Lake Michigan 30 miles off Chicago by the four-turret gun of the United States battleship Wisconsin. The U-37, with a known record of seven allied ships sunk, was destroyed in accordance with provisions of the treaty of Versailles. Destruction of the craft was a part of the annual summer maneuvers of naval reservists from Indiana and Illinois. The U-37 sank in 150 feet of water less than one minute after the first salvo of 13 shots hit her.

Three Killed in Wreck.
Brownsville, Ind.—Three men were killed and two seriously when a front engine of B. and O. through freight No. 30 hit the rails at Meador, near here. The dead are Harry McCully, head brakeman; Hugo Selfner, engineer; Thomas J. Hill, fireman. The injured are Melford Downing, engineer; Claude Harding, fireman. All were from Seymour, Ind. Two investigations are in progress in an effort to determine the cause of the wreck.

PREDICT RECORD WHEAT CROP

Yield This Year Points To Forty-Three Million Bushels Greater Than Last Year.

Washington.—The country's count based winter and spring wheat crop promises to be 12,000,000 bushels larger than last year's based on forecasts of production announced by the Department of Agriculture. There will be smaller crops of oats, barley and hay than were harvested last year, while the apple crop will not be half so large as that of 1920 and the peach crop will be much smaller than last year.

Winter wheat, which a month ago promised a crop of 62,000,000 bushels came through May in bad shape in several of the important producing states and as a result the forecast of production showed a reduction of 51,000,000 bushels, bringing the total to the same quantity as produced last year. Kansas, premier wheat state, reported a decline in the condition of the crop from 81 per cent of a normal on May 1, to 69 on June 1, which resulted in a reduction in that state's forecast by 3,000,000 bushels. In Nebraska the condition dropped from 92 to 75 and in Oklahoma from 81 to 70.

The spring wheat crop forecast indicates 43,000,000 bushels more than last year's crop. The condition of the crop is better than a year ago, while the average is somewhat smaller than last year. An acre field of 133 bushels is forecast, compared with 108 bushels last year.

The June crop report giving production forecasts based on the condition of the crops on June 1, the condition at that date and acreage planted, follows:
Winter wheat: production forecast 57,000,000 bushels; condition 77.9. Spring wheat: production 25,000,000; condition 93.4; acreage 18,023,000. All wheat: production 82,000,000; condition 82.0; acreage 26,744,000. Oats: production 1,400,000; condition 85.7; acreage 44,829,000. Barley: production 191,000,000; condition 87.1; acreage 7,733,000. Rye: production 71,000,000; condition 90.3. Hay: production 101,000,000; condition 85. Apples: production 108,000,000; condition 11.8. Peaches: production 21,700,000; condition 13.5.

Four in Family Killed.
Louis, Ky.—A girl, who gave her life in an effort to save a brother, was the first of four members of our family to die as the result of a battle on Walpole Creek, Elliott county, alleged to have grown out of accusations involving moonshining. The victims, Mary Sparks, 11 years old, shot through heart; Wesley Sparks, Sr., her father, beaten to death; Wesley Sparks, Jr., died after receiving five knife wounds. Daniel Sparks, brother of Mary, shot fatally. Another brother, Hugh, was wounded when in the fight.

Oregon Seeks Recognition.
Mexico City.—The American State Department is in possession of the first communication of a possible series of communications from President Alvaro Obregon relative to the new arrangement, handed to the President 10 days ago by George T. Sullivan, American Charge d'Affaires, relative to recognition of the Mexican Government, according to information obtained here.

Negroes Are Accused.
Tulsa, Okla.—The first step toward prosecution of alleged leaders of the race riots and subsequent burning of the negro district here recently, with a cost of $2 lives, was taken with the filing of charges against K. B. Stratford, negro, and former hotel proprietor, and three other negroes, none of whom is in custody. They are charged with rioting.

Says Aid "Is Needed Now."
Washington.—Legislation authorizing the Treasury to place $50,000,000 at the disposal of the Federal Farm Loan Board for relief of agricultural interests was advocated before the House Banking Committee by Secretary Andrew W. Mellon. The treasury now has $100,000,000 on deposit with the board, and in addition, Mr. Mellon said, is holding $150,000,000 in farm loan bonds, for which, at present, there is no market. "If aid ever was needed, it is needed now," said the Secretary.

Minimum Is 150,000 Men.
Washington.—The army appropriation bill, carrying $333,000,000 and providing for an army of 150,000 men for the next fiscal year, was passed by the Senate without a roll call. It now goes to conference with the House. The Senate rejected the committee amendments to the bill, providing for a minimum army of 170,000 men, thereby reversing previous action, which was favorable to the amendment. The vote was 36 to 32.

who held their hands far off from the court. These latter were strangely and superbly dressed in trappings of gold and silver. The whole brilliant procession moved toward the plaza of Cuzco, where, with feet bared and eyes fixed upon the east, all awaited the coming of the sun. The moment he appeared, the multitude prostrated themselves, and in a frenzy of adoration reached toward him supplicating hands, crying to him that he was their god and father. Then the emperor taking a glass of wine in his right

RECOGNITION MUST PRECEDE TREATY

BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND MEXICO, LATIN PRESS STATES.

New Element in Mexican Question Is Injected By the Formal Protest of American Oil Operators Against a New Tax Levy.

Mexico City.—Recognition of the administration of President Alvaro Obregon by the United States must precede treaty making between the two nations, and although President Obregon desired to sign the treaty mentioned in the recent American memorandum, he can not do so except after recognition of the Mexican Government.

This statement was printed by all the newspapers of Mexico City, they apparently having delivered their information from the same unnamed official source. The declaration, it may be the newspapers that the United States is not dealing with a new nation, but with a republic of 100 years' standing, possessing an "intelligent people who know how to fulfill their international obligations."

Washington.—A new element was injected into the Mexican question through formal protest to the State Department by American oil operators against the 25 per cent increase in taxes on petroleum, under a decree issued in Mexico since the present negotiations for the drawing of a treaty of amity and commerce were begun.

COLONEL GALBRAITH KILLED

American Legion Chief Meets His Death in an Automobile Accident.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Colonel Fred W. Galbraith, of Cincinnati, National Commander of the American Legion, was killed instantly when an automobile, in which he and Milton J. Foreman, of Chicago, a General in the National Guard, and Henry Ryan, another national official of the Legion, were riding, plunged down a 10-foot embankment on the outskirts of the city. The party had attended a rally in behalf of the citizens' military training camp campaign. Galbraith, Foreman and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Assistant Secretary of the Navy, were the principal speakers. Following the meeting the party returned to Indianapolis. The automobile, about six miles from the city, was on Ryan's roadster and passed about an hour and a half at the club. Ryan was bringing the party back to the city when the accident occurred. Ryan and Foreman were seriously injured and were taken to the City Hospital.

"Stand By" Is Appeal.
St. Johns, N. F.—The American freight steamer Charles, which struck an iceberg 200 miles off the Newfoundland coast, reported that the water had reached the Brecon, and asked the nearest steamer to stand by. The British freighter Seapool, which was damaged by collision with an iceberg of the Newfoundland coast reported that she was making good progress toward this port.

Would Oust Physicians.
Boston, Mass.—Elimination from membership in medical associations of physicians who willfully fail or refuse to comply with local or state health laws for prevention of disease was urged by the Preventive Medical and Public Health Section of the American Medical Association. The section voted to submit to the House of Delegates a resolution asking that the House take the matter up with its constituent associations and consider any well-founded demand for laws to be signed to carry out the suggestions.

Legion Plans Followed.
Washington.—Five-fold plans of the American Legion are outlined in a new draft of the so-called soldiers' bonus bill, completed by a Senate subcommittee. The revised bill differs little from the McCumber bill reported during the last session of Congress, and is to be submitted soon to the Senate Finance Committee. A cash bonus, adjusted service certificates for loans and deferred payment, vocational training aid, and land settlement aid are its principal features.

hand invited the god to drink. The offering accepted, he and other lords of the royal Inca blood drank the holy wine prepared by virgins consecrated to the service of the sun. Proceeding to the sun's own sanctuary, then, a chosen few were clothed with secret rites his golden image with its rays of gold and silver studded with gems. These followed sacrifices by auguries and a great feast. The fire, kept burning all the year by the virgins of the sun, was replenished

U. S. TO CO-OPERATE WITH OTHER NATIONS

AGREEMENT REACHED BETWEEN GOVERNMENT AND BANKERS

To Transact Foreign Deals Under Government Supervision, Is Report After Parley at Conference at the White House.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Washington.—Assurances are understood to have been given to the Government by the groups of international bankers in this country that the same group of American officials will be sought by all future treaties affecting the world financial situation. The assurances are understood to have been given as a result of the recent White House Conference conducted by President Harding with J. P. Morgan and other American financiers. Administration spokesmen said that as a result of the transaction of the United States to a creditor nation, it was imperative that there should be the fullest cooperation between the government and bankers engaged in transactions of an international character.

The understanding reached between the government and the international bankers was said to be of a broad and general character. Formal government approval, it is understood, will be required before any general policy is adopted, but separate transactions under the policy will be referred to the government only for informal discussion only.

At the same time it became known that representatives of the Federal Reserve Board and the Treasury already have begun to select the conferees for a second conference of bankers such as that which recently assembled at the White House. The second conference is expected to include bankers from the West.

Farm Loan Act.
Washington.—The Senate passed and sent to the House the Keyton bill amending the Federal farm loan act to permit an increase in interest rates on loans of joint stock land banks from 5 to 5 1/2 per cent. During the debate, which preceded adoption, however, tax exempt securities came under a strong fire and demands were made that the Government eradicate what was described as the exemption evil.

Ships Crash Off Havana.
Havana, Cuba.—The American steamer Silver Star collided at sea, about 70 miles from Havana, with the American schooner Elizabeth Ruhl, and the latter vessel was damaged, it is learned. The Elizabeth Ruhl, bound from Mobile with lumber, refused offers of aid. It was added, and fear is expressed for the safety of the crew.

Refuses To Aid Officers.
Boston, Mass.—Governor Channing H. D. C. declined to take action toward reinstatement of Boston policemen who went out on strike in September, 1919. The governor said the responsibility for the conduct of the Police Department was vested in the Police Commissioner. He saw no occasion for action on his part, he wrote.

Two Officers Killed.
Toluca, Mex.—Three men are dead as a result of a machine gun, hand grenade and revolver battle here between police and a man who had refused to pay his board bill. The toll included two policemen and James Edward Kelley, the man who refused to pay the bill. The policemen were Harry Dowell and Harold Mosbrugger.

Rent Boosted.
New York.—Testimony showing heavy increases in office and loft building rentals, varying from 100 per cent last year to 400 per cent since 1915, was given to the New York Legislative Committee. Increases of 50 per cent were so common, Samuel Untermyer, committee counsel, said that he would not "trouble himself to read them into the record."

Citizens Win Injunction.
Paris, Ky.—The latest battle between the Paris Water Company and citizens of the city resulted in an injunction being granted preventing the company turning off water for fire protection. The water company had sought to increase the rate to the city from $30 a year for each fire plug to $50 a year.

Publicity Drive Urged.
Denver, Colo.—The American Federation of Labor was urged to conduct a publicity campaign involving the expenditure of about $2,500,000 by John W. Hays, President of the Union Labor Trades Department of the Federation, in an address before the department's convention.

High Taxes For Ohio.
Columbus, O.—Six distinct times in the interest of various propositions, some local and some general, the recent session of the Ohio General Assembly has been held. The tax law limitation before it finally voted to suspend it for three years upon approval of 61 per cent of the voters voting upon this proposition in the November election. Seven laws thus are repealed during the referendum period, which will result in higher tax rates. In addition there are 100 others which contain provisions for tax levies.

Bank Bandits Nabbed.
Pueblo, Ind.—Two bandits attempted a hold-up at the Pueblo State Bank. Clarence Smith, cashier, was shot in the breast when he refused to surrender money to the bandits. He is wounded probably fatally. The bandit shot Edward Weidling, assistant cashier, in the arm. The bandits fled without any loot and were captured a mile north of Ft. Wayne. A driver of a taxi, who says he overheard him to drive them from Ft. Wayne to Pueblo, is being held here.

His Golden Dream Vanished.
Agitated Lover—Is it true that your father has lost his fortune?
His Lady Love (Sighing)—Yes, if I suspect away, but you are left, Percy, dear?
Agitated Lover—Great Jupiter! I should say I am left!
Not the Same.
"Reverse and luck always mean the same, don't they father?"
"My no means, my son. The more reverses a man has in business the less backing he can get."

CHINESE IN DIRE STRAITS

American Woman Tells of Terrible Conditions in the Country's Fam-ine-Stricken Districts.

"It was like sending my husband off to war, when I saw him depart for service in the famine district—out of reach of the ordinary comforts of life, and four days away from a doctor," writes Mrs. Guy L. Survis, from Nanking, China, to the American committee for China famine fund. Mr. Survis, dean of the college of arts in the University of Nanking, was recently excused from his academic duties to take charge of famine relief under the international commission in a large area near Nanking.

Almost as dangerous as war are the conditions of life in the famine regions, according to reports of missionaries and travelers, and with the coming of spring, the perils from disease are greatly increased.

Something of the conditions under which the natives have lived during the winter months, and from which cholera, typhus and many other maladies must inevitably result, may be imagined from Mrs. Survis' description of a village as it usually appears during the famine:

"Entering the villages one sees little to indicate that anything unusual is happening. Everything is very quiet. Streets are deserted. This is because most of the people are staying in bed to save their strength. The pangs of hunger are less painful if they do not try to get up and around."

"Often there is but one outfit of clothing (and that not any too complete) in many one household. That is worn by the member of the family who must inevitably go out once in a while, sometimes in a vain effort to obtain food. Infants and young children often have no clothes at all, but are kept in bed or wrapped in pieces of the old, worn-out clothing of their elders."

"Many families tear their houses down, room by room, and use the timbers for fuel. When they have no house left, they retire to a rule sort of hollowed-out cave in the ground. There is nothing startling or picturesque as in the case of floods, fires, and large concentration camps, but that only means that want and destitution are everywhere, instead of in conspicuous places."

"Son of a Gun."
The phrase, "son of a gun," is sometimes explained as "Son of the Wind-pot or Flagon." There is a word "koon" which is a dialectal variety of "kawn"—gallon. Another view is that the expression was originally applied to boys born on board ship. One admiral said that he had been cradled under the breast of a gun-carriage. It occurs in this sense in Smyth's "Sailor's Word-Book" (1867). It is usually used in a deprecatory sense.

Another Ancient Civilization.
Ruins recently discovered in the vicinity of El Perote, State of Vera Cruz, reveal the existence of an ancient civilization hitherto unknown. Ruins discovered are neither of stone or clay, but of a curious bright substance, heavy and looking like tin.

Artificial Limbs.
Artificial arms and legs were, it is believed, used in Egypt as early as 700 B. C. It is said they were made by the priests, who were the physicians and surgeons of those days in the land of the Nile, and the limbs were well constructed.

Remarkable Physical Strength.
While the average woman possesses only about two-thirds of the physical strength of the average man, there are plenty of exceptions, and there have been women who could rival almost every feat of the strongest man. One of the most wonderful of them all was Miss Kate Roberts, the daughter of a Welsh preacher. Though there was nothing in her least masculine about this young woman, she could lift a full-grown man shore her head with one arm.

Coal in Ancient Times.
Medieval writers usually refer to coal as "sea-coal" (carbonem maritimi, or carbo de mari), in order to distinguish it from charcoal (carbonem). The name evidently arose from the fact that it was brought to some places by water. The name was, however, used of coal which was carried by Chester from Exeter, and of that found in the middle of Derbyshire. In the reign of Elizabeth coal was measured by the barrel, nine barrels to the ton.

Couldn't Break the Rule.
"Tint easier is a cool chap."
"How so?"
"A chap with a revolver under him to hand out the bank's cash yesterday, but he said he couldn't do it unless the thing was identified. This took the fellow so aback he hesitated a moment and was nabbed."

THE GREAT CLIMAX SCENE FROM THE FAMOUS PLAY, "FRIENDLY ENEMIES."

There has been no patriotic play quite so successful as "Friendly Enemies." Its message is true Americanism, conducting and persuasive. It is a play that everybody should have in the above scene through the love for his son, aided by the sympathetic understanding of his wife, and the constant pleasantry of his life-long friend, Henry Block, Karl Pfeiffer, himself, sees the great patriotic truth of Americanism.

Mr. Clifford Hunt and wife, of Rock Run, visited Mrs. Hazel Razer several days last week.

George Razer, Jr., and Ben Warren attended court at Owingsville on Monday.

David Station visited his grandson, Willie Clay Station at Farmers last Friday and Saturday. David Station is 85 years old and gets about well for his age.

Mrs. Martha Station visited Mrs. E. R. Wells at Owingsville several days last week.

There will be a meeting at Hedrick school house the fourth Sunday in this month by Brother Thomas Crouch. This brings his regular appointment here.

Ed. Station will leave for the oil fields in Lee county, in a few days.
